FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

What is the Open Doors Membership?

We are proud to support the youth in our community by providing a free membership and a 75% discount on youth programs for all foster children. This membership automatically terminates after 6 months, and the child can reapply every 6 months.

Who is eligible for the Open Doors Membership?

Any foster child residing in Knox County up to age 21. This membership is for the foster child only, not the foster family however we encourage the foster family to sign up for a family membership as well. Children under the age of 14 must have an adult and/or guardian in the building with them. Please refer to the facility age limits for more information.

How do I receive an Open Doors Membership?

- Fill out an Open Doors Membership Application for the child in custody
- Bring in a copy of the Proof Custody for the child
- Stop at the YMCA Front Desk and the child can get signed up immediately
